Alumi / Cloison de séparation acoustique

Doté d'une structure en aluminium anodisé et composé de matériau absorbant recouvert de feutre décoratif, la cloison de séparation acoustique Alumi est idéale pour réduire la propagation des ondes sonores dans vos bureaux. Fabriqué par la marque suédoise Abstracta, réputée pour la qualité et les performances de son mobilier acoustique, la cloison de séparation Alumi est disponible dans de nombreuses hauteurs et largeurs.

Son revêtement en feutre décoratif rehaussé par sa structure raffinée en aluminium lui confère une très belle élégance qui mettra en valeur vos locaux. Sa forte capacité absorbante lui permet d'apporter un confort acoustique très performant dans votre pièce.

Grâce à ses lignes épurées et raffinées, la cloison de séparation acoustique Alumi de chez Abstracta peut s'intégrer dans de nombreux espaces tels qu'une salle d'attente, un bureau en open space, une cafétéria ou un espace détente.

La version standard est livrée avec des pieds fixes. Pour faciliter une plus grande mobilité, vous pourrez également équiper les cloisons de séparation acoustiques de pieds sur roulettes à commander en option dans les accessoires.
